Since 1960 guests are being hosted in „Haus Lackner“. In 2022 the former B&B hospitality was transformed into a new, modern building with alpine architecture. You will find the alpine-chic influenced „Appartement Steinplatte“ on the first floor, with a marvelous view on the same-named mountain from your own balcony. As Haus Lackner is positioned in the center of the idyllic village of Waidring, ways are short. You reach the skiing area „Steinplatte“ within just a few walking minutes as well as shopping facilities like ski & bike rentals and the bus-station where you can start your personal adventures in the wonderful, alpine area of the region Pillerseetal. The „Apartment Steinplatte“ offers you a living & dining area including a fully equipped kitchen, a king size bedroom and a spacious bathroom. The sofa in the living & dining area could be transformed into an additional bed. Enjoy your well-deserved holiday at „Haus Lackner“ in the heart of the alps and the region Pillerseetal.

Martin Berger

Since 1960 guests are being host in „Haus Lackner“. In 2022 the former bed and breakfast hospitality was transformed to a new and modern building with alpine architecture from us, a young local couple. We are very happy and glad to continue the tradition of the house in a family way and to welcome our guests with passion and warmth in the "Apartment Steinplatte".
